

BRIDGEWAY

Behavioral Health

A division of Preferred Family Healthcare

Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault Services

Bridgeway Behavioral Health's Terry L. Robertson Center provides emergency shelter for women experiencing domestic violence in Lincoln County and surrounding counties. Additionally, there is a 24-hour crisis hotline (636-224-1850) for callers experiencing domestic violence to speak with a staff member or volunteer advocate. The Robertson Center Outreach Services (636-224-1864) are as follows:

- Legal Advocacy and Court Advocacy
- Resource Advocacy
- One-on-One Advocacy
- Hospital Advocacy
- Sexual Assault Response Team
- Children's Programs and Support Group
- Community Support Group
- Education on Domestic Violence
- Safety Planning
- Safe at Home
- Lethality Assessment