

Bridgeway's Terry L. Robertson Center provides emergency shelter for women experiencing domestic violence in Lincoln and surrounding counties.

Additionally, there is a 24-hour crisis hotline for callers experiencing domestic violence to speak with a staff member or volunteer advocate.

The Robertson Center also provides:

- Legal Advocacy and Court Advocacy
- Resource Advocacy
- One-on-One Advocacy
- Hospital Advocacy
- Sexual Assault Response Team
- Children's Programs and Support Group
- Community Support Group
- Education on Domestic Violence
- Safety Planning
- Safe at Home
- Lethality Assessment